The signing of the Lease-Lend bill ties us and our fate irrevocably with Britain. There should be no stint in our help. It is now national policy and national law to "Aid Britain," so let's do our utmost.

Our man Allen heartened many a wavering soul about Britain's chance. In fact, Allen says Hitler has no chance whatever. We are happy to say that he made a splendid impression upon the Rotarians and others who met him. This makes us happy, for we "guaranteed" him.

We have seen copies of letters sent by our one-half representative, Johnnie Aldridge, to Bilbo and Ford urging them to try to reestablish the clearing work on the Yalobusha river. Johnnie is at least trying to help us.

We also understand that Byron Hunter is either boss or straw boss of a gang of men engaged in work on the Big Black River in Montgomery and adjoining counties. He comes in with muddy feet—shoes—every night.

Beware of the rat-eyed agitators that are likely to come to Grenada at any time to seek to disturb the peace and serenity of the employees of our premier industry. They cannot put an editor in jail for saying that I hope.

Grandma Katie Betz is mighty proud of her new grandchild, as she should be.

With babies coming so fast in Grenada, we suggest the formation of a Grandmaw's Club.

We are not only happy to report that Mr. J. T. Thomas is functioning as usual but, also after talking a couple of hours with our man Allen, he has postponed Hitler's entrance into Grenada Rank about two weeks.

Miss Owen, one of the handsome teachers on Mr. Rundle's staff, can put out those quizzes in the Battle of the Sexes almost as well as Dr. I. Q.

That was no lie about my giving a copy of the GCW to that WPA dude on the stage at Hellsapoppin. It's the undying truth. I thought he should have some good reading matter.

That was a fact also about my talking to a lady in green on the Peabody Skyline, or whatever it was, but her escort was on one side and my old lady on the other.

Lowe Brown, the faithful carrier on city route One, not only renewed his own subscription but had the GCW sent to his friend, Professor John E. Hall at Maitland, Fla.

If any of you registered nurses have not answered your questionnaire, please call Mrs. Irene Ford at the hospital, who can give you the low-down.

Pat Harrison wired us again this week about some allotment or another concerning the court house, but I'll be damned if I did not lose the telegram. Bilbo and Ford either have not found out about it, or neglected to wire us. Pat Harrison must be, belatedly, erased our name from the Black Book.

Dear Jack Hancock: I will run your ad for you whenever I have space. Write me what you think of Allen's articles.

If this war prosperity continues, all of our dire predictions and all of Conner's dire predictions will fail to materialize and, if so, Dennis Murphee is headed as straight for the Governor's chair as a martin to his gourd.

W. A. Fuller Co. has been added to our list. I do not know whether it is a tombstone company or a ticker house. All I know I got a dollar for six months.

Mike Conner had better stick to that fat job he has, and quit listening to these false political prophets.

All these big ads from the power trust have crowded out any TVA dope, except Red Briscoe's stuff.

Brother Blassengame from west of Oxberry honored Grenada with his presence Tuesday.

The old lady asked me to thank Mary Cain of Summit for her appreciated written message. The old lady and I read with sorrow of the death of Mrs. Cain's father and of the death of her sister.

While up on the roof of the Peabody Saturday night with the big dogs, I met a nice young lady in green, a Miss Grace Wynn, whose escort, Mr. Ralph Newton of Washington, was kind enough to let me talk with the lady. I promised to put her name in the paper. Here it is. We were properly chaperoned because my own old lady was right by me, though I think she got a little miffed. You know how wimmin are.

Prominent Writer Talks To Rotarians

(By JOHN RUNDLE)
The Grenada Rotary Club was favored Tuesday with an address from the versatile writer and traveler Herbert Allen. Many citizens of Grenada have become acquainted with Mr. Allen through his timely and scholarly articles appearing in the Grenada County Weekly.

Herbert Allen is a Canadian by birth, served in the Royal Air Corps through the First World War, and a short time ago became an American citizen. In an unpretentious manner he talked to the Rotarians and their visitors on World Affairs as they appear to him. Having traveled extensively through the countries of the world he has drawn many startling statements on an array of facts that few possess. Mr. Allen knows the background, the trends, the ambitions of the totalitarian nations of Europe and their assets and liabilities in the present struggle. He expressed great optimism in predicting British victory.

All who heard this gifted speaker and writer were impressed with his address and appreciated his coming to Grenada without compensation, or political ambition. The Club also feels grateful to the editor of the Grenada County Weekly for bringing Mr. Allen to our club and city.

MISS FANNIE MAE IZARD

Feeding The Family To Be Discussed At School

No one job is more important today than that of the homemaker whose task it is to select, prepare and serve the food on which the welfare of the family depends. The foods you wisely select for feeding your family are rich in vitamins and minerals that are essential to health and happiness. Cooked properly these are preserved.

Building and maintaining health is like constructing a house. If the materials put into the construction are properly selected and free from weakness, the house is sturdy. If, however, materials are poorly selected, if they lack certain characteristics, the house is weak. In much the same manner, if the foods we eat are selected carelessly, or robbed of their nutritive values during cooking, every part of our bodies suffer in weakness and illness develop. On the other hand, wise selection and preparation in a manner that protects vitamin and mineral content, means we enjoy healthier bodies.

This is all very logical and simple. Yet, the Department of Agriculture reports that 75 percent of the American families do not receive enough vitamins and minerals. We have very definite proof of this in the vast amount of vitamin pills sold every day in our drug stores. Last year they ranked high among the best sellers.

Authorities tell us that natural vitamins such as those found in foods are more effective than vitamin pills, so why shouldn't we save our vitamins and minerals too in cooking. It is a simple matter to do this and the resulting food is far more attractive and pleasing to the taste.

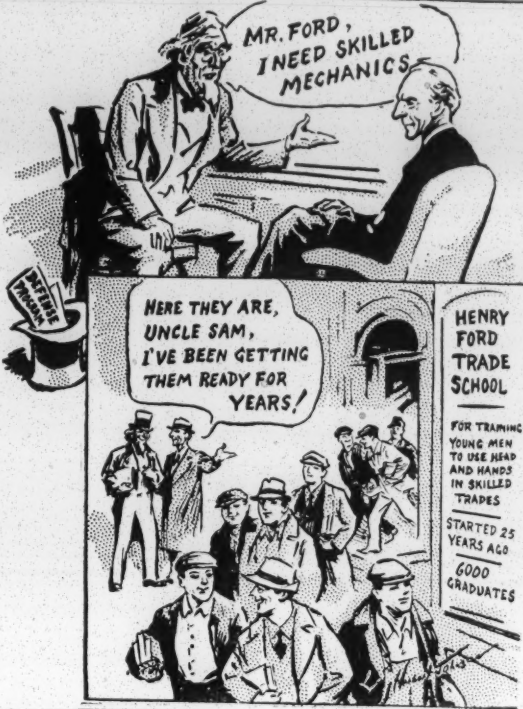

At the Hotel Barwin on March 18, 19, and 20, at 2:30 o'clock you will see foods prepared the modern electric way, which does conserve and protect the natural food value and flavors.

This cooking school and modernization show will be conducted by Miss Fannie Mae Izard and Mrs. Odean Gillis of the Mississippi Power & Light Co. They will give you new recipes and ideas each day. Attractive prizes and dealer display will be part on the program.

Moss Bros. Motor Co. Takes Grenadian's Father Passes On Allis-Chalmers Line

The curiosity of any who have seen the red painted Allis-Chalmers farm tractor parked near Moss Brothers when it is announced that the Moss Brothers Motor Company have taken on the sales agency in this territory of the farm implements manufactured by the famous Allis-Chalmers line which includes farm tractors (as well as the mowers, binders, and other farm machinery designated to be drawn by tractors. The people of Grenada county are not unfamiliar with the performance of Allis-Chalmers road tractors, for many of our county roads have owned, and now own and operate them.

Mr. Rogers Parker, a man who is not only a large land owner and a successful farmer, but a man who is, from his various activities in the farm programs, personally acquainted with every potential purchaser of such implements and tractors, will be head salesman of this line.

Thus Grenada Grows.

Mrs. Ford Urges Registered Nurses To Answer

A nation-wide effort is being made to secure a list of registered nurses suitable for possible emergency service, so that Uncle Sam may know the nursing resources of the nation.

All nurses are urged to fill in their questionnaires and mail them promptly to Miss Mary Dorsey, Box 214, Greenville, Miss.

Mrs. Irene Ford, R. N., of Grenada Hospital has undertaken the duty of calling to the attention of the nurses of this community the necessity of answering. There is no obligation on the part of the nurse to enter military service. The effort, as stated, is for Uncle Sam to take a census of his "daughters," capable of performing military duty, provided, always, that "daughter" is willing to serve.

MARSHAL ODOM AND STATE COPS NAB CAR THIEVES

Grenada was thrown into excitement Wednesday afternoon, when five or six state patrol cars, with sirens screaming and traffic lights unnoted, passed through Grenada chasing a pair of negroes who had stolen a car near Columbus. Just beyond the overhead bridge, the negroes, one with a peg leg, abandoned the car. The patrolmen quickly overtook the negro with the peg leg, and Jailer Matt Cooley arrested the other negro. The latter negro, while Matt's attention was directed elsewhere, snatched Matt's pistol from his pocket, threw it on Matt, and relieved Matt of both the car and about seventy dollars in cash. The re-forming group of state cops quickly began the pursuit of the second negro who was headed eastward, and intercepted and arrested him near Eupora.

Mrs. H. H. "Buddy" Holland Died Last Friday

Mrs. H. H. (Buddy) Holland, just 29 years of age, died suddenly in the hospital apartment at the Houston home on Levee Street in Grenada Friday, March 7, 1941.

She was born in Belmont, Miss., 20 years ago, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin School of that city. She and Mr. Holland were married July 9, 1937. She was an employee of the Southern Bell system in this city and was a young woman possessed of high moral and family of person and manner. Her popularity and that of her husband was attested to by the large number of people who attended her funeral and the exquisite floral tributes that were piled high upon her grave.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist Church in Belmont by the Methodist pastor, Rev. J. W. Butts on Saturday, after which burial was had in the Belmont cemetery. A large number of Grenada people attended the funeral.

She left no issue, her husband, her parents, three brothers and three sisters, and many friends extend our sympathy in the loss of this estimable young woman.

John Pressgrove Reports On Army Camp

Mr. John P. Pressgrove, Chancery Clerk of Grenada County, rendered a verbal report to the citizens of Grenada assembled at the City Hall Friday afternoon concerning the results of his recent stay in Washington seeking to interest the War Department in locating the proposed new camp, destined for this state, in the Grenada vicinity.

Mr. Pressgrove stated that he was received courteously both at the various departments and by Messrs. Bilbo, Ford and Harrison, but indicated that the first step that Grenada must take is that of preparing a site, showing a probable cost of the 10,000 acres, rainfall of the area, character of soil and terrain, railroad, power and highway facilities, as well as existing sources of amusement and recreation for the camp. Should such a camp be established in this area.

He made no effort to conceal the fact that literally hundreds of communities in Mississippi are striving to secure the location of the camp, nor did he conceal the fact that the rapidly changing picture of the war situation might change any plans already made. He stated that nearly every one in Washington was there "with hands on, looking for some plum." He stated most positively that, with the proper use of data on the desk of the War Department head, our senators and our representative would then have something definite to work upon, lacking that file of data, they will buy nothing.

He reported that, in his opinion, formed by numerous contacts, a camp would be established in North Mississippi should the army continue to expand with its present rapidity.

A committee formed of Messrs. B. J. Anderson, Marshall Perry, John Pressgrove, C. V. McKell and H. L. Honeycutt, was named to seek to secure the necessary data, condense it and forward it to Washington.

It seems to be definite that, should a camp be established near here, it will be established east of 31 Highway and north and south of the Grenada Montgomery county line, and will require about 100,000 acres, as it also seems to be sure that a camp, when or if established, will be for a division (30,000 men) of heavy artillery units.

Winona and Montgomery county citizens have joined in wholeheartedly with this city and county in a cooperative effort to work in harmony.

Bolled down, everything is extremely indefinite.

Dear Little Pric Horton: tell my friend, and your bossman, Dr. Spier, howdy for me.

Power Situation Disclosed By Action

Following the regular meeting Monday night when the question of a municipal plan was discussed, the board of aldermen met with the citizens committee Tuesday morning and, after considering the proposals of two engineering firms, The W. A. Fuller Company of St. Louis and Lile & Adler of Birmingham, each of whom would undertake to make a comprehensive survey of the local situation, turned the matter over to Messrs. Burt, Burkley and Perry, members of the council, for recommendations and action.

CITIZENS COMMITTEE NAMED

We agree to work in union with the City Council, if need be, and to render our services with diligence in this respect.

RED BRISCOE GOES INTO MATTER

I missed a publication last week. Dr. Rice spoke as you remember and other incidents materialized that prevented me having sufficient time to place any information or statement in the press, however my friends may I assure you that I have not been idle by no means, and I expect from here on out that I will miss publications time and time again due to work.

Done and diligence that must be applied in the events that we hope will happen within the near future and happen with reputation.

The Citizens Committee has been organized and is published in this issue, the statements on this agreement of the Citizens Committee cannot perform miracles or full rabbits out of hats or what have you, that committee is going to meet your best and best it badly and from expressions from prospective citizens we are about to enter a very trying and technical controversy and battle like fury from the beginning until the end to ever hope to make any sort of progress. It is not the idea of just a "City Owned Plant" that must be considered in this matter, really it is the least thing to be thought of until we will have won the fight, placing a plant is ABC and that easy but the technicalities that will confront us from every thought of and unthought of angle will stay and continue to stay until we have overcome these difficulties, this fight cannot be a victory without your help and as I have often said that the gentlemen of the City Hall are not magicians and to be frank they are, in my estimation, somewhat anxious to do something about it, these gentlemen wish with all good intention, to do the things that we, the citizens wish done, but they must have your and your help, these gentlemen are helping in every instance by they further need your support by showing them you are really interested in this power situation.

Please do not be of the frame of mind that in truth you want a plant and hope that we get one but you had rather and you are permitting your friend or neighbor to do your work for you, after all my friends should we erect a plant it will be your plant also and you will benefit as same as we that have "struck our necks out" for you, you and you.

By no means do I wish to impress you that I am waning in my efforts, far from that, to be honest we are becoming stronger and stronger as the days roll by, but friends we really need your support, a wholehearted support, even during a survey or after the survey as that is really where the fight starts and who knows where it will end.

If you are not with us in this hoped for plant and are against it, I personally invite your criticism and invite you to form your own company or a Citizens Committee whatever the case might be and combat with us, but come amply prepared to do battle in a firm up way for we strictly mean business.

The engineers have been here several times and it seems that the technical difficulties must be ironed out in the contracts with the City before the City employees them, if they do, let us hope within a very short time these engineers will have begun work and then we will determine where we really stand.

C. W. BRISCOE

The following resolution was adopted by the affirmative vote of all the Aldermen of the City of Grenada, Mississippi, except Alderman Moss, absent and not voting, and ordered entered on the Minutes, as follows:

A resolution providing for the paving, curbing, guttering and storm sewer of Harvey Street, from Poplar Street to College Street, Elm Street from Poplar Street to College Street, and Franklin Street from Slader Street to Jefferson Street, in said City.

CARD OF THANKS

Myself, sons and daughters are extremely grateful for the many attentions received both before his death and at his funeral and burial of our dear father and husband, the late Dr. E. B. Province. May God bless you, Mrs. E. B. Province and Family.

With the hoodoo business, the flim-flamming and the gyping by the big boys in the last war in mind, it looks like the government would counteract some of the grafting, but, to us who were conscious in 1917-1918, that period looked like a model of honesty compared to this present period.

THE NEON LIGHTS

(Lines written for Mrs. A. S. Bell)
When I see the lights shining
In glorious splendor,
On the new Baptist Church,
I quickly remember
The radiant Star in the East.
A beckoning light,
To herald and honor our Master.
Then I think of the woman,
Whose efforts accomplished this goal:
And I say, "Oh Ruler of Hearts,
Let this aura of light,
Be a shield for her soul."
Mrs. Gaidy.

CARD OF THANKS

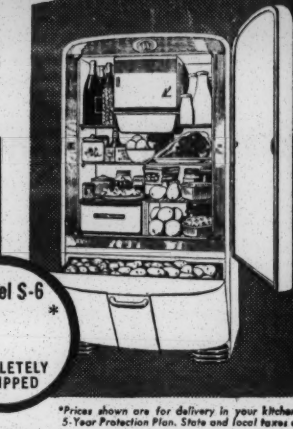

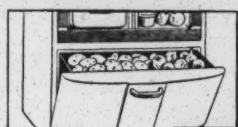

To the doctors, nurses, friends and family of our deceased wife, daughter and husband, we wish to extend our most sincere thanks for attention, kindness and flowers and other evidences of esteem when Mrs. "Buddy" Holland died.

A CALL TO ARMS

(Editorial)
Friends, fellow students, young ladies and gentlemen, Hark ye unto what we say. We of G. H. S. have a job to do, a job which cannot be done without hard work and constant practice. We must bring that North Central Regional Field Meet Cup back to Grenada. We lost it to Winona last year. We lost it, not because our representatives didn't work, not because they were tired, but because Winona had a good track team, a team which must have been better than Grenada's. It is safe to say that Winona will have another good team this year, a team which will be hard to beat.

Our fine debating team has already won ten points, we expect to be well represented in the platform and literary events. Grenada's chief cause for concern is the athletic events. Grenada seldom if ever places first in these contests. We must try to do that this year. We have plenty of material here in Grenada. Of course we have some habitual athletes. Those super-men upon whom we can always depend. But we must have a stronger force. To win a battle requires strong reserves. A school the size of this one should have a track team second to none in the district. We could have just such a team if all the wasted talent could be mastered. Grenada has a fine track coach and if given the material he can turn out a winning team. Now you literary and platform contestants, get busy! Study and practice. Study hard, and practice constantly. Sacrifice a few dates and put in some time for the school. If you will work now you will be rewarded with success in the meet. We want Grenada to overwhelm all others, to pile up a record-breaking number of points and be undisputed champions in the district. We can do this if we just will!

Through the courtesy of M. P. & L. Co., a very interesting and educational film was shown the students of GHHS last Tuesday afternoon. The idea of the picture was to promote safe driving. In the picture several men who have won awards for safe driving were interviewed. The picture was most enjoyable and we found out several things about driving that we hadn't known.

GIRL RESERVES PARTY

Last Friday night the Girl Reserves really "put on the dog" and we do mean dog. The party was a dog party, which took place at 7:30 in the high school gym. For entrance, three barks were required from each guest. The girls were divided into four groups: Scotties, Bulldogs, Birdogs, and Collies. Then each group participated in games and contests to gain points for the prizes. Dog tricks and dog songs were pantomimed. Coca-Cola and hot dogs were served.

The Senior play "Trouble in Paradise" has been selected. It is an entirely different type play from those produced in recent years. Watch the "Bulldog" for further announcements.

CHAPEL PROGRAM

On Wednesday, March 5, Dr. Berry and Miss Bell with a girl quartette from Hillman College of Clinton, Mississippi, were GHHS guests at chapel. The girls sang a group of delightful songs: "Jesus Is All The World To Me," "The Year's at the Spring," "The Rains in the Spring," "When Soft Voices Die," and "La Chacaracha." The quartette was enjoyed so much that the audience clapped for an encore, which was graciously declined. Dr. Berry then conducted a short devotional service emphasizing the need of truly Christian living and the importance of the Bible in daily life.

WASTE BASKET

Hello there! Well, a lot happened over last week-end. It seems that

Frank Matthews and Anne Odum enjoyed each others company.

"Uncle" Tommy Houston and Polly Richardson, Edgar Turnpseed and Billy Gay were also out for a good time Sunday night.

Camilla Smith and Allan Anderson were hoping that it wouldn't rain the other night—the car leaked.

John Keeton's theme song "It All Comes Back to me Now."

Benton Keeton, Imogene Gieslin, Jack Cault—another triangle.

For the sake of those who wish to know: Sue Howell is definitely not Catherine Jones' second wife, quite happy last Tuesday and Wednesday—could it have been because in Adamant journeyed over this way?

The wedding ring that Marjorie James has been wearing lately has Menny Moore and Mary Libba Horton are the latest.

"Poor" Keeton.

Sh! We heard that Bobby Weir's legs wouldn't hold him up Wednesday night. Why? he was in such a state that "Uncle" had to take him home and put him to bed. You see Wednesday afternoon for the first time. Bobby went out for track.

"Grenada County News A Specialty:
Other News Used Only in Emergencies"

THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1941

Mississippi Boys At Camp Blanding

Again as in 1891, in 1898 and in 1916, the Nation faces a great emergency as the shadows of war, which have darkened more than half the world lengthen. Armed forces of the United States are being increased weekly. Troops are concentrated in scores of posts across the country, and—Once more the YMCA faces a great responsibility.

In Mississippi, the state and local YMCAs are uniting their efforts to secure $25,000 to provide leave-area activities for soldiers of the State wherever they are and continue its home work. Representatives of the Association, acting through the Mississippi State Committee, have organized the Mississippi Emergency Fund Committee, which is conducting the special effort to raise this sum. This committee is headed by Mr. A. H. Stone, State Chairman, Mr. Edmund Taylor, Vice-Chairman, Greenville, Bob Gandy, Jackson, Treasurer, and four Division Chairmen: Mr. Billy Wynn, Greenville; Mr. D. H. Hall, New Albany; Mr. Rex Brown, Jackson; and Mr. L. O. Crosby, Piquette.

While the government will provide recreational activities on the posts, the YMCA will center its effort in providing programs to fill the important leisure time of the soldiers in the areas adjacent to training centers. It seeks to provide an alternative to the commercial amusements—many of questionable character—which are already moving into the leave areas. "No soldier is lonelier than a soldier on leave." The off-duty hours are critical hours for our citizen army. The young soldier, need friendly hands to guide him in his new life. The young soldiers, called for only a year's intensive training, will soon return to their home communities to live their normal lives. Home ties should be maintained as far as possible during this period.

By July 1st, upward of 6,000 of Mississippi's young men will be stationed at Camp Blanding, Florida. The Mississippi Emergency YMCA Fund Committee has made a careful estimate of the needs to open and operate its share of this emergency project, which is to meet an emergency situation in which our own boys are involved. States like Ohio and New York and others are raising or have raised sums sufficient to take care of their boys in camp, such as Camp Shelby, Fort Meade, and others. The purpose of the Mississippi Emergency YMCA Fund Committee is to open and operate a YMA Recreational Center at Starke, Florida, near Camp Blanding, and continue the normal Y work with the boys at home. Specifically, here are some of the things the soldiers will find at the Association Center: Friendly counseling on personal problems; Club rooms where he and his comrades may gather; Libraries, well stocked with books, magazines and newspapers; Storage facilities for valuables; Social affairs where he will have the opportunity of meeting worthwhile girls; Religious meetings in which he may participate; Entertainment and motion pictures; Athletic, individual and group competitions; Educational classes to prepare for the day when he returns to civilian life; Informal games; For fun, discussion groups, lectures, and correspondence facilities. This is a partial list of a great number of activities which the YMCA offers the soldier. No membership card or admission fees of any kind are required. The uniform is all the membership card he needs.

When he leaves the post, military discipline is relaxed, and his chief thought is escape from routine to recreation. It is at this point that the YMCA is able to make its greatest contribution. This contribution is defined by Gen. G. O. Marshall, Chief of the United States Army, in these words: "The YMCA has rendered an invaluable service to the men of the United States Army. It has contributed materially to the morale of the Army in promoting the contentment of the individual soldier. It is, as a matter of fact, an integral part of the American Army system, and I feel that it is highly deserving of the support of the American Public."

Colonel A. G. Paxon, 114th F. A. Camp Blanding, Florida, states that: "The officers and men of the 114th Field Artillery are deeply appreciative of the very fine effort of the State YMCA in erecting a YMA building near Camp Blanding. This will serve a definite need of many patriotic Mississippians of the 31st Division offering their services and the subject has the full endorsement of the members of this Regiment."

Not only is the State of Mississippi divided into four Divisions but each Division is divided into Districts making 18 Districts in the State. Each District is divided into Counties and Counties into Townships. Each having a Chairman and workers. The outstanding men and women are leading these committees and assisting in the raising of Mississippi's quota. They say: "Our contribution will help these young men to be better soldiers now and better citizens in the future and we will help to provide our sons and your sons with such a program."

England And Germany

(By Herbert B. Allen)

Six months ago I wrote in the GCW on England and Germany. At that time the British army had recently lost its entire field equipment when the Belgian monarch threw up the sponge, and the French army buckled under the blows of German panzer divisions, abetted by treachery behind the lines. Incidentally the word panzer is German for panther, implying the rapid movement and ferocious attack of these mechanized mobile units. Germany's aerial hosts were being advertised as a "bolt to soften up" the British for an invasion, and various dates were being set by Hitler for this military jubilee. At that time Hitler really believed he would be the historic leader to bring about the humiliation of proud Britannia.

Hitler thought so THEN—but he no longer entertains any such dazzling illusions. Action and reaction are equal: the operations of this law are infallible. While the going was good he enjoyed the enchanting rhapsody of his hallucinations. But now—the dreary solitude of his nights are haunted by nightmares and nostalgia.

Hitler probably arises in the morning feeling as though the keel of a British battle cruiser had rested on his chest all night; that spattering bullets from a Spitfire had riddled all the feathers from his pillow; and that his mattress had been stuffed with spare parts for Australian tanks. Every dog has his day. That dog had his!

What dissipated the roscate dreams that Adolf Hitler entertained so fondly as recently as six months ago? The fact is that he has suffered one of the most stunning and humiliating defeats in the annals of military history.

For years the enormous industry of Germany had been in high gear, fashioning an instrument with which to paralyze and destroy the nerve center of the modern civilized world—London, England. This instrument was to be a gigantic military air power which in unprecedented numbers, in weight of armament, in superlative training, in veteran experience, and in brilliant quality of personnel, was to be the crowning achievement of the Teutonic race.

This German armada of the air was to be the toast of the army, the pride and glory of Nazidom—and the envy and nemesis of the rest of the world.

This German air power was to accomplish two separate and distinct objectives. It was to terrorize, machine gun, bomb, burn and destroy the city of London, and the Londoners. It was also to quickly destroy the British Royal Air Force and cripple the British Navy. That program must have been successfully fulfilled to make it possible for the German army, marshalled along the "invasion coast", to cross the English Channel and make contact with the island of England.

Germany precipitated that crisis at the time best suited to the interests of the German High Command. She lacked no single element of preparation. It was "Der Tag!" There was no question of her immense superiority in the air. She was formidable, and no nation outside of the Empire believed that Britain could withstand the terrible shock of the attack about to be launched upon her.

Finally the blow struck. And a blow! But it was not struck at London—nor at England. It was delivered squarely on the red nose of the German Luftwaffe! There had been a deplorable miscalculation somewhere. The German air force limped back across the English Channel leaving their pilots and planes strewn all over the English landscape, much to the annoyance of English gardeners. Day after day, the German commanders, safe in their dugouts in France, ordered these massed squadrons across to attack England, until the slaughter of their crews, and the destruction of their planes, and completely demoralized the morale of the Nazi fliers.

In brief, the German pilots of this generation learned that one British combat pilot would attack five of them any day in the week, and six on Sunday. That a British pilot needed only one ally—and that was daylight in which to pick up the silhouette of any microbes in the pure English air. What happened to the celebrated pilots of Deutschland when they were no longer opening up on Spanish civilians or helpless Poles. Like all other rats they were forced to take to their natural element—the night.

And while the Eighth Command was taking all the guts out of the German Luftwaffe, and showing them up for the yellow trips that they really are, the boys in the Bomber Command took a wide stage of three hundred miles along the "invasion coast" and gave the German armies there an unforgettable preview of what hell looks like in hot weather. What happened there may best be imagined in the light of the great wind of Berlin swallowing his pride and his predictions and his dates for the invasion of England.

What did the Luftwaffe learn while they were over English soil. Plenty! For one thing, they learned that it takes more than the names of famous makes of planes to make combat pilots in a man's air force. It takes the courage of the free and untrammeled spirit, as well as lightning speed and dexterity which qualities are only developed from within by unharnessed initiatives, for they cannot be imposed from without.

That the stuff of which pilots are made cannot be blown into men by political bombast and nationalistic hollow. Neither can it be shot into the arm with a propaganda syringe; drummed in through the ears via brass bands; nor be infused through the hide from colored shirts, brown or otherwise. Nazi philosophy was damn poor armor when the crash of British machine guns scattered over their fuselage.

British pilots need no frenzied stimulation to take them into the air for old England. Such nonsense would be ridiculous. They have no inferiority complex, which required the victim to be needled up to the occasion. The British pilot knows well what takes place in the mind of his German opponents when he attacks them on sight, irrespective of the odds against him. He knows what he is flying for. It's etched on his insignia in very small print. But the words are very powerful; they are: "Hien or Mon Droid," which means in Mississippian: God and my right!

Next week ENGLAND and GERMANY again. How will Britain destroy the German army? When that is done, fellow countrymen of the writer, Canadians, will be among the shock troops that will be first to inflict terrible retribution upon Germany. How will they do it. Read the Grenada County Weekly and learn how it will probably be done).

Our National Debt

The debt limit of the federal government is now set at 45 billion dollars.

Our banker friend, Keene Huffington gave us the one for figuring the national debt, in terms of one-dollar bills, both as to weight, area covered and cubic volume.

Each dollar bill is 6.1-8 inches by 2.7-16 inches, and therefore has an area of about 16 square inches. The total area which could be covered by the 45 billions of dollar bills would be 165,000 acres, or 200 square miles, and area, if square, which would measure over 16 miles on each side, and would cover 60 percent of Grenada county.

It requires 625 one-dollar bills to weigh a pound. Therefore, the total weight of the 45 billion dollars, if represented by one-dollar bills, would be 130 million pounds; 2900 railroad cars each bearing 50,000 pounds; or 85 trains each of 40 cars and each having a weight inside of 50,000 pounds.

A stack of 200 one-dollar bills is 1.1-16 inches in height. Therefore a stack of 200 one-dollar bills would have a cubic contents of 16 cubic inches. With those data, it can easily be computed that the national debt, if in one-dollar bills, would contain 22 million cubic feet, or a cube 280 feet on each edge.

The length of a dollar bill, as stated, is 6.1-8 inches. If stretched end to end, the 45 billion one-dollar bills would extend for 0.400,000 miles, or 200 times around the earth; or would cover a road 217 feet wide across the earth at the equator. These one-dollar bills would entirely cover a 51 Highway, 8000 feet wide, from New Orleans to Chicago.

Now you do some figuring, for our head is dizzy.

HOLCOMB NEWS

Mrs. Hortense Matthews was operated on Monday for appendicitis. She is in the Grenada Hospital and is in a very serious condition. Her many friends hope she will soon recover.

Others on the sick list are Mrs. Adie Dubard, Mrs. Sam Curle, Mrs. Helene Varner, and Jeanette Hayden, all of Holcomb. We are very sorry and send love and sympathy to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Benford Campbell accompanied by Mrs. C. W. Turner and children spent a pleasant afternoon in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Turner of Carroll county Sunday.

We are very happy to know that Mrs. Wade Rice is able to be back teaching school after a period of illness.

Mr. Charles E. Campbell has returned home from Paynes, Miss., where he has been working.

The tell us Mary Beatty has a new boy friend from Grenada, wonder who it is.

We are very anxious to see the house that Billy Warford and Benford Campbell have started. Hope it doesn't fall.

Mrs. Hattie Singleton and Mrs. Earl Tackett gave a shower in honor of Miss Lola Bell Turner before her marriage, to Mr. Benford Campbell. Mrs. Campbell sends her appreciation to her many friends for the useful gifts.

Since fire destroyed the Valley school building the latter part of the summer, their play, which is "Out Jericho on the Warpath," will be presented at the Holcomb Consolidated High School on Friday night, March 21.

Looks like the name of the Senior play is shooting down a certain senior's "alley."

Services were held at the Baptist Church Sunday morning and evening by Rev. Garner.

We hear there are "moonshiners" up on the hill. Wonder who they are?

Looks like the Holcomb school teachers are trying to enjoy the few days of Spring we have had, as they were out early walking to school Monday morning. Hope they do not take spring fever before examinations.

'Twas the other morning when the top sergeant was strolling down the battery street and spied smoke curling lazily up from the side of a tent. He entered said tent, looked around and saw a huge pile of blankets under a cot with smoke issuing from them. He kicked the pile, a faint moan was his reward. He reached down and yanked the pile of cover from under the cot and low and behold there was Sergeant Jackson and Private Sam B. Spence. The top sergeant drew back his foot and—(censored)—as hard as he could. All the time Sergeant Jackson was supposed to be at school.

Here are several names for war gases that will make you scratch your head before you pronounce them: Mustard gas, Bis Beta-chloroethylsulfide; Lesite gas, Beta-chlorovinylidichloroarsine; Admiste, Diphenylaminechlorarsine; Chloracetophenone, Phenylchloromethylketone.

The Liaison section went out to secure information about the enemy during our little maneuver last week. They got back promptly at noon giving us the information that they were very hungry. Some that were waiting the information that they were supposed to obtain thought that they should go hungry.

Give the army the strikers and see no more strikes! Darling, Please wait for me—Your Loving Draftee (I mean Selectee) enlisting as the case may be.

"Pat" Austin and "Boumer" Bagwell, our cooks de luxe went to Starke Saturday night. Boys, that's the reason we had no ice water Sunday.

Did you know that it was possible for the Selectee to serve his entire year at $21.00 per month? A fellow's first four months in the army is paid this amount and after this period is up receives pay according to his rank. Privates may be returned to the $21.00 a month grade as a disciplinary measure.

Glad to report that Private Lee H.

Morgan and Private Robert E. All-dread are much improved. Indeed it is a consoling feeling to know that if you are in need of medical attention you get the very best in the army.

Private William Murry paid us a visit Saturday night. He is a member of Company "M" of the 15th Infantry and wants to be transferred to this battery. We hope that you and others from Grenada county can manage to be a part of this outfit.

The first two weeks for the Selectee is a very dull one and unless he becomes very interested in his work he will find it a very boring one. He's sorter segregated for the first two weeks in camp. Not being allowed to go to the Canteen, picture show, recreation hall, town, library or other places where soldiers congregate. He even eats at a different time from the old men and isn't allowed to associate with them. All of this is done with the idea of keeping down diseases that they may have and spread.

Beginning April 1st we will be given Wednesday afternoon off. The time will be utilized in swimming or other sports. Hurry April showers with your May flowers.

In order to promote and hold a high morale the officers of the "Dixie" Division working in conjunction with a group of women's clubs from Jacksonville have arranged to have a series of social functions or rather dances for the soldiers. Because of the lack of facilities to accommodate the whole "Dixie" Division, only a hundred at the time can attend. The soldiers who receive bids to these dances are chosen by the battery or battalion commander. They must have a unique, ionable reputation. The one chosen from our group was none other than "Our" Moose Ratson. We still don't figure out how he qualified, knowing him like we do. Maybe the Colonel hasn't found him out yet. When the boys reached him that he had been chosen, he immediately indulged in his favorite pastime, "Prowling." He went from one tent to the other, to the here, a cab there, a seat from way down in battery "C." Finally with the untiring efforts of the whole Battalion combined, we got him ready. He reports that a good time was had by all. He is already contemplating inviting some of the fair maidens he met to come out to the camp and he would show them about the camp. (Nice fellow that Ratson boy).

It is very easy to tear down the morale of an army. Give the men poor food, slow mail service and don't pay on time. Army psychologists, know this and it won't happen in the five year preparedness program.

The business of lining-up and going through the mess line is a thing of the past, thank goodness. There is no more dumping food on top of other food. It is served in dishes for the eight men at each table.

We spent one morning on the Pistol Range last week and found out we could not hit as many bull-eyes as we thought we could. Sgt. Theisman proved to be the best marksman with a score of 85 out of a possible 100. While Garland C. Mitchell took the booby prize with 24 points out the possible 100.

Griffis Meek, who is studying aviation at Curtis School at Glendale, California, entering school last week, begins to receive the GCW this week.

After seeing the applause elicited from the audience, including myself, at Heilzapoppin, I am confirmed in my theory that folks are low-minded.

I'll bet I am the only man alive who ever got the Peabody to grind up a fine steak so that, without my teeth, I could eat and enjoy it.

Albert Clark of Mt. Nebo, gave a good promise Monday which is equivalent to money.

Sam Yollis visited his brother in Hattiesburg last Thursday and while there went on a tour through Camp Shelby.

Well, I guess I will be a "Presbyterian for a Day," as they are going to have a fish supper Friday night.

Miss Willie McCaslin, of Graysport, must still be sick, as she has not been to town recently.

After seeing the few having so much, and the many having hardly nothing and the middle class being taxed to death, I am beginning to believe that there is something wrong with the world.

If the South has any hope for its poorer people, it is the children, for there is little hope to change those already set in their ways.

MT. NEBO NEWS

Many years ago there were two great writers of fiction who made the world better for their having lived, namely the immortal Dickens, who portrayed the sunny side of life and told of the meek and lowly, and Thackeray, who told of the rich and mighty. We here have two men, who no doubt have heartaches and sorrows, but keep them so well concealed that they appear to always be looking on the sunny side of life, both of them will deny themselves to help the distressed, poor, hungry or sick. Both by their quaint sayings and keen Irish wit, cause many chuckles and old time rib tickling "haw haws" and they never seem to realize they have said anything unusual. Such men make life more worth living. They help "drive" dull cares away. As neither of them like publicity, names only given on request. They have been such an inspiration to the humble writer of this that, to each of them:

"I pray the prayer the Easterners do. May the peace of Allah abide with you. Wherever you stay, wherever you go, May the beautiful palaces of Allah grow through days of labor and nights of rest. The love of good Allah make you blest. God touch my heart as the Easterners do. May the peace of Allah abide with you."

Those from here attending Dr. E. B. Province's funeral at Grenada were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boland, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Province, Mr. and Mrs. John Province, and family. Dr. Province was a lovable man and had many friends here, who are grieved and will keenly miss him.

Barley Bates has returned from Jackson and says that government work is not what its cracked up to be.

Edward Sugg came home from a well-paying job in Louisiana, to join the army on the 15th, but those patriotic labor leaders have men to work off tax pay rolls for the Oliver Twist stunt MOKE and still MOKE. Parchman is too good a place for them.

The writer had to take time off last week to visit his doctor, but it made type setter's job on the GCW lighter.

There are about eight more good well-meaning men and women here, who are groping in the dark for want of the GCW to shed joy and inspiration in their homes, so look out for in our feeble way, we will turn on the heat, as good and strong as we know how and have been taught from earliest dawn of our existence to present time.

Smile!

and the World Smiles with You!"

"The Voice with a Smile" is contagious—it makes friends—it's a real social and business asset. Many times people form their impression of you by your voice and the manner in which you telephone.

What are the points of a pleasing telephone personality? To speak pleasantly, of course. And to be considerate and courteous—such things as answering promptly, talking directly into the mouthpiece in a normal tone of voice, and hanging up the receiver gently when the conversation is completed.

Miss Marjorie Herman was here from Delta State Teachers College for the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herman.

Mrs. F. Davis and children, spent from Friday to Sunday visiting relatives at their old home in Eupora.

The picture of that beautiful baby, Patricia Ann Hollingsworth had many compliments and also did the picture of Clyde Jacks, Jr., a little cousin of ours. Those kids can't help but be good looking for they both picked out beautiful mothers and handsome daddies.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Christian Service held their social meeting at Mrs. E. M. McClinton's Monday afternoon. Mrs. T. P. Caffey was co-hostess with Mrs. McClinton and all had a good time. After the contest lovely fruit was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bay of Memphis, accompanied by Mrs. Gill-son's in their Mrs. Harrison of Atlanta, Ga., spent Sunday with Dr. G. V. Gillespie and Mrs. J. E. Aldridge and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaw Williams, of Grenada, spent the weekend with the E. R. Campbell family.

Mrs. Sara McClinton, of Memphis, is of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McClinton during the weekend.

Mr. L. Bransome, an all-around gentleman that numbers his friends by 11 that know him, has been ordered to bed and told to stay there for a week or ten days, or until a slight ailment of the heart is better, and we all hope this will not take long.

One can look out most any day and see a beautiful white-haired lady of gentle demeanor with a smile on her face that radiates sunshine wherever she goes—to the sick, the shut-ins, the lonely—she does not forget any of them. She carries flowers and oft times a "love gift" for she loves everybody, this angel of goodness and sunshine—and everybody loves her—she is Miss Emma Wilkins.

Mrs. Cliff Stoddard and little daughter, Ann, are visiting her parents in Coffeeville. Her husband, Mr. Stoddard, is working at present in Memphis.

With all the treaties, conferences and pious vows held by Hitler and his allies and would-be allies, the stubborn fact remains that, in the meantime, Italy has had its ears beaten down.

Tom Neely had a grand opening of his Magnolia Club last Friday evening.

Three good men, Lem Boone, Lonzo Phillips, and J. L. Townes, Jr., are candidates for alderman, city at large, vacated by this writer. I would be a most unworthy predecessor of either of them.

The old lady (though I expect, in truth and justice, I should cut out that "old" part) and I had a grand time with a party at Hellzapopping and on the Sky Line on Saturday night.

A lot of the other Neboites had better send or bring some cash money soon. No RFC cold-storage eggs, please.

Cory Cook, of Mt. Nebo, gets his name on the Roll of Honor this week.

MACDOWELL MUSICAL SPRING PRESENTATION

The outstanding musical event of old time music of the Spring was staged Thursday night at Hotel Barwin when the talented personnel of MacDowell Musicals presented a program of old fashioned music.

At eight o'clock, Mrs. Walter Garner, talented and popular president of the club, greeted the audience which filled to capacity the auditorium.

The ushers were members of the Junior MacDowell Musicals. Each one a picture of quaint loveliness in period dresses of the 1890 era. The following comprised this group: Misses Louise Aven, Carolyn Whitaker, Frances Herring, Dorothy Talbert, Nellie Joiner, Jean Scott Burt and Margaret Spain.

Time 1890. The stage was arranged as a lovely Southern garden. White cellises were covered with sunflowers, Magnolia blossoms and Spanish moss were arranged to form a perfect garden scene. Here Col. and Mrs. Andrew Carothers were walking in their Hillcrest Plantation garden awaiting their guests. Mrs. H. A. Alexander as Mrs. Carothers. The party guests were neighbors from nearby plantations. The ladies, beautifully dressed in the pastel hued costumes of the ante-bellum days were escorted by the gentlemen appearing on the program attired as dandies of yesteryear. TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB ENTERTAINS WITH SWEET HEART DINNER

The Twentieth Century Club, of which Mrs. J. K. Arent is president, entertained with a delicious banquet and floor show Tuesday evening at the Community House in Grenada. Eight guests were present.

The club through its president, Mrs. Arent, presented Mrs. H. J. Ray a lovely corsage in appreciation of the recent luncheon at Hotel Penbody which Mrs. Ray tendered her fellow members. Miss Laverne Wilson presented a reading, strictly local in its nature and its characters.

Miss Mabel Walker rendered several numbers at the piano. Mrs. Leon Geeslin, with Mrs. Cecil Penn at the piano, gave two dance numbers.

Each guest had a sealed envelope in front of him or her plate. At the announced time, each arose and read the verse contained in the envelope, and these verses elicited much laughter and applause. A pillow fight between Bob Vandiver and Henry Ray, refereed by Whyte Whitaker, resulted in victory for Vandiver. A "Battle of the Sexes" with Miss Lucile Owen as Interlocutor resulted in the prize being given to the laughably called weaker sex. A pingpong game between two ladies and two gentlemen resulted the same way. As for the banquet, it was fine in quality, ample in quantity and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

I've seen the Band in Gay Shanghai. The Northern Lights up home! Brown beauties out in Java, and the Vatican in Rome.

I've seen the Life Guards on parade. And Adolf's small moustache! Have listened to fat Mussa Spouting Latin balderdash.

But there's something I've been missing. In my rambles here and there. That was not on exhibition. At the recent New York Fair.

Lady Byron I've been waiting. For a chance to pull the chain. That sends the torrents rushing. Through Grenada's Court House drain! —Herbert B. Allen.

BAPTIST TRAINING SCHOOL FOR TEACHERS

This week four in-service teachers have been engaged in teaching the local Sunday School teachers of the First Baptist Church new methods of training pupils.

This training school lasted four days and the group of splendid instructors have their headquarters at Jackson, Miss.

The following were here: Miss Madison and Miss Cullen. The above mentioned were guests of Mrs. E. R. Green.

Mr. Farmer, guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Perry, Sr. and Mr. E. C. Williams, guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Goodiver.

THREE ENTER RACE FOR "CITY DAD"

Following the announcement last week of Mr. J. L. Towles, Jr., for the post of alderman, city at large, two other capable gentlemen have now qualified: Mr. Lem Boone and Mr. W. A. Billups, both of whom are well and favorably known to the people of this city. The one to be elected at the election Saturday, March 15, is to take the place of Mr. W. W. Whitaker, resigned. What either of them want with it, God only knows.

What August 15 was Hitler talking about anyway?
